

The University Center for Autonomous Systems

Legendary Leaders in Innovation supports the expansion of autonomous industries across North Dakota. The program helps innovators, start-ups and entrepreneurs cultivate their ideas, have access to a robust ecosystem, experienced mentors, researchers and numerous funding opportunities.

UNIVERSITY

University of North Dakota

CENTER DIRECTOR

Dr. Amy Whitney

CENTER LOCATION

4200 James Ray Drive
Grand Forks, ND 58202

Awarded University Center for Autonomous Systems
Innovation Grant in 2018

INNOVATIVE AWARD

Legendary Leaders in Innovation voted winner of the 2021 University Economic Development Association in the Innovation category!

CONTACT INFO

Renee Shelton, Project Manager
renee.shelton@und.edu

Dr. Amy Whitney, Director
amy.whitney@und.edu

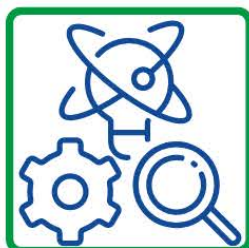

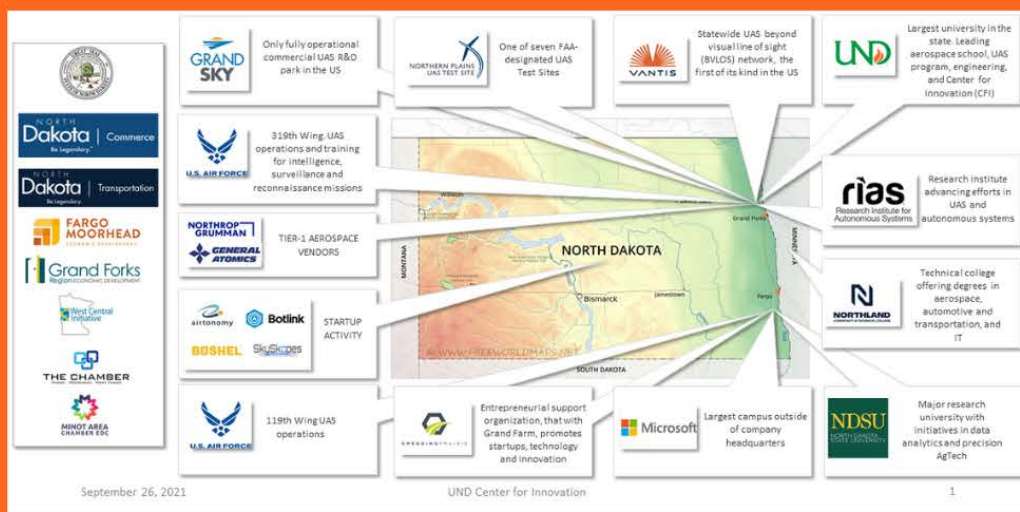

WEBSITE

<http://www.legendaryleadersininnovation.com>

WHY NORTH DAKOTA

- Expertise in autonomous and UAS technology
- Emerging national recognition
- Robust state infrastructure investments
- AUS/UAS ecosystems collaboration
- Land, air, and space technology development

Existing ecosystem of research, testing, validation, commercialization & training

Innovation & Startup Commercialization
6 Companies

Capital Raised
$16.9 Million

Revenue Earned
$2.4 Million

Jobs & Internships Created
61 Jobs & 27
Internships

